

CONNECTICUT: MORE THAN A PLACE

LIVE, WORK, AND PLAY: Fast Facts, Working in Connecticut

Connecticut is within 500 miles of over 29% of U.S. population, 30% of U.S. businesses, and 32% of U.S. GDP.

(U.S. Bureau of Economics, 2019)

Connecticut is within 500 miles of 66% of Canada's population, 61% of Canada's businesses.

(U.S. Bureau of Economics, 2019)

Connecticut is ranked 7th in the U.S. for the productivity of its workforce.

(Bureau of Labor Statistics)

Connecticut has the 5th most educated workforce in the United States.

(Wallethub)

On average, Connecticut office space is $40 - $64 per square foot less expensive than in New York City.

(Squareft.com, Offices.net)

Connecticut was ranked #4 technology ecosystem in the U.S.

(Bloomberg State Innovation Index 2020)

Connecticut is home to 2 Fortune 100 companies, 13 Fortune 500 companies, and 25 Fortune 1000 companies.

(Bureau of Labor Statistics)

Connecticut is #3 in the U.S. for adults with advanced degrees.

(Bureau of Labor Statistics)

Hartford, Connecticut is a "Knowledge Capital" among global cities.

(Brookings Institution)

Connecticut is served by 3 deep-water ports, convenient rail connections, 4 Foreign Trade Zones, and 72 Opportunity Zones.

Connecticut provides easy access to an international airport and six other leading airports including JFK and La Guardia.

(U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis)

Connecticut has easily accessible highways, connecting the state to Canada and the rest of the United States via I-84 and I-95.